

The economic function of public art is to increase the value of
private property.