

The social function of public art is to subject us to civic behaviour.